

Involving carers in inpatient treatment of mental illness

Carer involvement in mental healthcare, although best practice, is not routinely implemented. Our training programme and manual for clinical staff:

- was co-developed with service users and carers
- focuses on how to facilitate and chair a session with patients and carers within the first days of admission
- is available online

Find out more: <https://www.arc-nt.nihr.ac.uk/research/projects/involvement-of-carers-in-acute-treatment-of-patients-with-psychosis/>

NIHR

Applied Research
Collaboration
North Thames

Queen Mary
University of London